BRIEF HISTORICAL PERSPECTIVES ON ALCOHOL AND TRANSPORTATION; AND THE ALCOHOL TRADITION AT INDIANA UNIVERSITY
by
Kurt M. Dubowski, Ph.D., LL.D., DABCC, DABFT

Summary: This is the traditional opening presentation of the Borkenstein Course. It was originally given as “Alcohol and Highway Safety” by Professor Borkenstein for more than ten years. It is now focused on historical perspectives of Alcohol and Transportation; and includes brief highlights of the Indiana University alcohol tradition, which is more than 70 years old; and of Professor Borkenstein’s career.

Outline of Presentation

1. The Alcohol Tradition at Indiana University, and Professor R. F. Borkenstein’s Career Highlights
2. Historical Scan: Key Events, People, Organizations Active on the Alcohol-and-Transportation Scene
